Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am writing you to request that either the full committee or my subcommittee hold a series of hearings this year focused on alleged corruption between Russian and American entities and political figures.

These hearings should take a close look at possible involvement Hillary Clinton may have had with Russian financiers who donated heavily to the Clinton Foundation. There is ample evidence to justify an under-oath examination of the relationship between the donations and the 2013 CFIUS approval of the sale of America's uranium reserves.

This request is prompted by new evidence that the Obama Administration had prior knowledge of possible bribery and violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act involving state-owned Russian nuclear industry figures, the Clinton Foundation, and other Americans prior to the CFIUS approval of the uranium transaction.

The hearings could also examine financial support of corporate Russian energy interests to various U.S. environmental entities. This little known clandestine Russian campaign was aimed at undermining the emergence of the American fracking industry and the construction of any oil or gas pipelines needed to make America energy self-sufficient.

The witnesses for the hearings would include US law enforcement officials, individuals who worked in coordination with US law enforcement in Russia and the United States, Clinton Foundation officials, leaders of environmental organizations, legal experts and others.

We can no longer wait to fully inform the American people of alleged criminal collusion by the previous Administration with the Russians.

Sincerely,
